Volume 24 Issue 4

April 2023

I want to share with you an “author’s blessing” I discovered at the front of a book I once read. It goes like this, “If you have come to these pages for laughter, may you find it. If you are here to be offended, may your ire rise and your blood boil. If you seek an adventure, may this story sing you away to blissful escape. If you need to test or confirm your beliefs, may you reach comfortable conclusions. All books reveal perfection, by what they are or what they are not. May you find that which you seek, in these pages and outside them. May you find perfection, and know it by name.”

I came across this blessing again the other day, and I was struck by how apt these words are not just for a book, but for a church. If you would read those words again and replace these words; pages, story, books, with the word church. If you, like me, see these words anew as a welcome to a church I want you to take a few moments and think about each sentence and how you might have experienced that very thing here at Our Saviour's. My hope is that in this church you have experienced joy and laughter, challenge and prodding, adventure and bliss, and finally perfection.

Finally, I want you to replace church with faith, because the reality is that our relationship with God does not end at the church doors. How has your faith made you laugh? How has your faith caused you to be offended and your ire rise? How has your faith created adventure in your life? How has your faith tested your preconceived notions? How has your faith revealed perfection? And if you find that you can't answer some of these questions, may your faith lead you to a greater understanding of your relationship with a God who knows you by name and loves you with a perfect love.

Peace,
Pastor Levi

Thank You's.....

Look at all the amazing things that God has done this past month at Our Saviour's: communion services, special music, baptism, Sonshine worship and many other unnamed and unknown ministries. It takes many hearts and hands to do God's work. We are truly grateful & blessed!

Thanks to all who helped organize the youth sledding event. A fun time was had by all- what a great way to enjoy the fresh snow.

Death doesn't win

In the final hours of 2021, a wildfire near Boulder, Colorado, destroyed 1,000 homes, including one belonging to Pastor Bill Stephens. His family, out of town at the time, lost all their possessions. After months of feeling buried in debris, insurance paperwork and mourning, Stephens decided that Easter 2022 would mark a fresh start.

During worship that morning, the pastor shared a photo of vibrant daffodils emerging on his charred property. Burned remnants were visible in the background, just as Easter's backdrop includes the pain and death of Good Friday. But the empty tomb in Easter's foreground means death won't win, reminded Stephens. Even when earthly life "isn't all daffodils," we have hope and eternal life through Jesus.

Easter reveals that God will "give us the joy, and it's going to be in the heart of pain that we go through as well," added the pastor. "And that just makes me draw closer to God."

Sharing the load

In 1969 the Hollies released "He Ain't Heavy, He's My Brother." Do you know the story behind that song title?

Fifty years earlier in Omaha, Nebraska, a boy with polio was abandoned at Father Flanagan's Home for Boys, predecessor to the Boys Town organization. Soon several older residents started carrying young Howard — with his heavy leg braces — especially up stairs. Father Flanagan once saw an older boy, Reuben, doing this and asked if it was hard work. Reuben replied, "He ain't heavy, Father. He's my brother." Years later, these words and the image of one person carrying another became the Boys Town brand.

All of us have been "carried" at some point, and we've likely "carried" someone else. The Hollies' song declares: "His welfare is my concern." Jesus said it this way: "Love your neighbor as yourself." The load isn't too heavy to bear because Jesus himself is always carrying us.
