Volume 24 Issue 3

March 2026

For Lent this year we as a congregation will be using the Lenten series, “The People vs. Judas Iscariot”. This is the not the first time that we have used this wonderful play to explore issues of sin and forgiveness, but in the past we have used a rotating cast of youth, this time we will have a mixture of youth and adults, and recurring actors. As we begin to take this journey again, I thought it would be good to hear the author Rev. Clayton McCord’s own words on his hopes for this Lenten drama series.

I have always wondered about the eternal fate of Judas Iscariot, the betrayer of Jesus. Was he beyond forgiveness? How is our sinfulness different? The story of his betrayal and confession holds in tension the judgement of God on one hand and the free grace of God on the other. In this tension I saw a connection to the theme of Lent: an honest accounting of our own guilt and need for salvation and renewal.

The goal of “The People vs. Judas Iscariot” is based upon the Ash Wednesday reading of Joel 2:13: “Return to the Lord, your God, for God is gracious and merciful; slow to anger and abounding in steadfast love...”. The series is guided by three objectives: 1) to revisit the passion narrative, hearing details through key witnesses in ways we might not have considered before now; 2) to prompt reflection upon our own need for forgiveness; and 3) to focus on the sacrificial death of Jesus Christ and his suffering for the sins of the world.

The purpose is to reflect on the justice of God’s law, exposing our sin, and the extent of God’s Grace through faith in Jesus Christ, by struggling with the case of “The People vs. Judas Iscariot”.

During these five weeks of the series, our members will be acting out different characters in the play. The “trial” is not meant to determine guilt, Judas has already been found guilty, but instead to determine the “punishment” for his crime. At the end of this Lenten series it will up to you, the congregation to make that determination yourself.

Peace, Pastor Levi

Our Saviour's Lutheran Church Council-at-Large Minutes of the February 11th, 2026
Meeting

Our Saviors Lutheran Church Council-at-large minutes for February 11th 2026.

Congregational president Mark Fokken called meeting to order at 7:03. Pastor Levi led the council in prayer. The minutes from January's meeting were read and approved.

There are some new member applications for Brad, Paige, Kyla, Ty Pederson along with Ashlyn Winklemann- acknowledged receipt of new members and motion was seconded. Welcome to our new members.

Discussion of the personnel committee; these members help oversee employment of the staff and volunteers of the church. Looking for those that feel the calling to help with this. Discussion of the stewardship committee. This committee helps plan events (stewarding our resources) which would include giving's, and planning. Have not had a campaign for this in many years (7).

This fall our church building is officially 75 years old. It was dedicated on November 6th 1951 (All Saints Sunday). Thinking of ideas to re-dedicate the church. Looking for members to serve on committee for this.

If you have any events or announcements that need to come to council at large, they will need to be brought to next month's meeting.

Susan Norgaard, who has served as our Youth Coordinator and has done such wonderful work, is submitting her resignation as Youth Coordinator. She will still serve on our church board and plans to be active but feels someone in this position needs to be able to dedicate more time. Resignation was motioned and approved by the board. The application process begins for a new Youth Coordinator. Please consider applying. Jill will begin advertising this as well. Susan, thank you for building such a wonderful program here. Your work has been noticed by so many.

Carnival date will be May 17th from 10am-noon
Meeting adjourned at 7:24

BOARD OF YOUTH EDUCATION:

The board of education met on February 11th with Jessi Jeppsen, Jon Hanson, Lisa Rybinski and Susan Norgaard present. Heather Olson was absent. Jill Winters was also present.

Officers were elected as follows: Susan Norgaard, President; Jon Hanson, Secretary. Lisa Rybinski will serve on the Personnel committee and Heather Olson will serve on the Stewardship committee. No new check signers need to be added at this time, as everyone served on the Board of Education last year.

We discussed the Heggies Pizza fundraiser, and the kids have already started selling. The money raised will go to the National Youth trips.

The soup suppers were also discussed. Jessi will check in each Wednesday to see if help is needed. Susan will coordinate volunteers including the confirmation students. Those who drop off soup usually stay to help as well.

The Easter Sunrise Breakfast was discussed. We will serve pancakes and sausage again this year since we have a large amount of leftover pancake mix. Pastor Levi suggested putting a sign-up sheet on the bulletin board to recruit volunteers. Susan would like to add something a little different and will purchase strawberries and whipped cream but will need someone to oversee that station. We will not be doing a bake sale this year as it was not a big success last year.

We discussed the carnival and Susan will send an email with the list of games so board members can review them and decide where they would like to help. Brent Jeppsen Construction is sponsoring the Balloon Artist out of the Cities. Pastor Levi was asked to invite others to sponsor a booth so that everyone who would like to participate would have an opportunity, and he agreed. He mentioned it might be best if one of us makes the announcement during church.

We discussed using Spark Leaflets for Sunday School but decided that ordering materials for all four seasons would be quite expensive. We feel the Sunday School kids are enjoying what we are currently using. We may look into this again at a later date.

When Life Needs a Little Wind

Botanists say that trees need the powerful March winds to flex their trunks and main branches, so that the sap is drawn up to nourish the budding leaves. Perhaps we need the gales of life in the same way, though we dislike enduring them. A blustery period in our fortunes is often the prelude to a new spring of life and health, success and happiness, when we keep steadfast in faith and look to the good in spite of appearances.
